Golden West Winds will be performing locally on Thursday, August 22 at 7 PM at the Carson Valley United Methodist Church. The Carson Valley Arts Council is proud to co-sponsor this free concert for our community.

It will be a program of classical, popular & patriotic music by the Golden West Winds, Wind Quintet from Travis Air Force Base, CA. The Golden West Winds is part of the United States Air Force Band of the Golden West from Travis Air Force Base, California. Comprised of flute, oboe, clarinet, French horn, and bassoon, this ensemble supports a wide variety of musical events ranging from military ceremonies and patriotic shows to educational programs and recitals of original works for woodwind quintet. Donations will be accepted to support the Carson Valley Arts Council's youth arts outreach.

The free concert is co-sponsored by the Carson Valley Arts Council and the Carson Valley United Methodist Church. For more information visit CVAC's website at <https://www.cvartscouncil.com> or call 775-782-8207.
