TOCCATA Presents a Concert of Baroque Favorites

Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at 7pm at Trinity Lutheran Church, 1480 Douglas Avenue, in Gardnerville.

ENJOY WINTER'S INDOOR PLEASURES WITH A CONCERT OF BAROQUE FAVORITES THAT WILL DEFINITELY WARM YOU UP!

Banish January's chill with flashy trumpet music, bravura arias, and beloved Baroque classics like Vivaldi's "Winter" concerto. TOCCATA-Tahoe Symphony Orchestra and Chorus kicks off its 13th annual "Baroque Masters" concert series. Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at 7pm at Trinity Lutheran Church, 1480 Douglas Avenue, in Gardnerville. Get your tickets at CVAC at 775-782-8207 or visit www.cvartscouncil.com.

Naturally, the trumpet in all its glory (played by William Cates) is featured in several pieces. The concert begins with "that music from Masterpiece Theater," formally known as Mouret's "Suite de Sinfonie" fanfare. Next up is the "Organ Concerto in B flat Major" by Handel, performed by David Brock, with its lively, dancing feel. Everyone knows Vivaldi's "Winter Concerto" – but you'll be blown away by the live performance and artistry of violinist Rick Stockton. Closing the first half of the concert is Bach's beautiful "Concerto for Two Violins in D Minor," whose slow movement is surely one of his most sublime creations.

The trumpet is back to open the second half, with Telemann's "Concerto for Trumpet and Two Oboes." More conversational than flashy, you'll enjoy the interplay among the soloists. The vocal soloists join the orchestra for two arias from Bach's glorious "Mass in B Minor": the lyrical "Domine Deus" duet (soprano Joy Strotz and tenor Owen McIntosh), and the consoling "Benedictus" for tenor. Then come the fireworks: first is the perpetual-motion tenor aria from Cantata #26 in which the music brilliantly depicts the text: roaring water swiftly rushing. Finally, trumpet and soprano team up for Handel's "Let the bright seraphim," a tour de force rousing enough to summon the celestial host!

The Douglas County performance is Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at 7pm at Trinity Lutheran Church, 1480 Douglas Avenue, in Gardnerville.

Tickets are $30 for adults ($40 preferred seating); $25 for seniors; free for youth under 23 ($15 preferred seating). Tickets are also available at the door 30 minutes prior to the concert. For information or to purchase tickets call CVAC at 775-782-8207 or visit www.cvartscouncil.com.

Carson Valley Arts Council (CVAC) presents local photographer Patrick Wilkes. Patrick's photographs include wedding and events photography, portraits and pet portraits in Northern Nevada and California.

Patrick will be displaying his photographs at the Copeland Gallery in Minden from January 8, 2019 through March 1, 2019. The exhibit can be viewed Monday through Saturday 10am to 5pm. Some of Patrick's photographs are available for purchase. CVAC will be hosting an artist's reception on Friday, January 11, 2019, 5 pm to 7 pm. Refreshments will be served and it is free to the public. Come and meet Patrick and preview his amazing work.

Patrick has a passion for taking photos in places of historical and cultural significance. He was the official photographer for Fort Ross Heritage Day and Nevada's 150th year celebration. His photography exhibit "Four Seasons at Pyramid Lake," which appeared at the Pyramid Lake Museum and Visitors Center from November 2013 to November 2014, paid tribute to the Paiute tribe, their culture, and the lake that holds a special place in their hearts.

Patrick is also the co-author of and photographer for the book Eastern Sierra and Death Valley Camping with Privacy and the co-creator of the I Love The Eastern Sierra website. You can preview Patrick's work at patrickwilkesphotographs.com. Feel free to contact us for additional information or questions by calling the Carson Valley Arts Council office at 782-8207. Visit our website at www.cvartscouncil.com to learn more about CVAC and upcoming events. The Copeland Gallery is located at 1572 US Hwy 395, Minden (corner of Hwy 395 and County Road).

Go with the flow of the watercolors as artist, Dana Childs takes you on a painting journey. Enjoy the wonders of watercolor as professional artist, Dana Childs, aka d'Lauren teaches you how to create impressionistic watercolor effects in several paintings completed throughout the workshop. Childs has been painting watercolors professionally for over two decades. In addition to this class, she will be offering an array of painting classes at Douglas County Parks and Recreation, all with a focus on technique and expressiveness. All levels welcome, but this class is ideal for the beginner. Those who desire individual guidance and instruction on your own compositions, who are intermediate to advanced may join these studio sessions and have the opportunity for individual critic and instruction within their own paintings.

To learn more about the art and artist, visit www.dlauren.net. To get a suggested supply list or ask questions email Dana at tfa.create@gmail.com. To Register call 775-782-5500.
