TOCCATA - Classy Classics
 June 4 – 7 pm
 Trinity Lutheran Church, Gardnerville

Brilliant young pianist Yirong Wang joins TOCCATA-Tahoe Symphony Orchestra and Chorus for Grieg's delightful "Piano Concerto in A Minor." Favorite local soloists present Mozart's "Horn Concerto #3" (Bruce Kanzelmeyer) and selected arias and duets (Joy Strotz and Owen MacIntosh). And the full orchestra stuns with Tchaikovsky's passionate "Romeo and Juliet Fantasy Overture." Choose from performances in Incline, Gardnerville, South Lake, and Reno, from June 2nd to 9th. Tickets at Carson Valley Arts Council.

Grieg's delightful "Piano Concerto" is as pure and lovely as the Norwegian countryside that inspired it. Filled with lustrous, warm, heart-melting melodies, it also shows off the soloist's virtuosic abilities, as keyboard fireworks bring the work to a triumphant close. As Tchaikovsky wrote, "It is not surprising that everyone should delight in Grieg."

Soloist Yirong Wang, a senior piano performance major at USC's prestigious Thornton School of Music, began studying piano at age 4. She has won top prizes in competitions in the U.S., as well as in Germany and her native China. She has performed in Shanghai Concert Hall and Carmel's Sunset Center, and also in numerous international music festivals, including Lang Lang's China Recital Tour. The Grieg concerto allows her to show off her passion and brilliant technique.

At the heart of Mozart's "Horn Concerto #3" is a beautiful melody, in which our soloist shows his gift for singing tone and great expressivity. The opening movement is livelier; and the finale is pure hunting horn, as rollicking and energetic as a good canter! Soloist Bruce Kanzelmeyer, who has lived in Reno since 1982, has served as principal horn in the Pittsburgh Symphony, taught horn at Carnegie Mellon University, and performed with professional orchestras in the Southwest and Mexico. Bruce, who is TOCCATA-Tahoe's principal horn, frequently plays with Reno Pops, Philharmonic, and Chamber Orchestra, and Nevada Opera.

Tchaikovsky's "Romeo and Juliet Fantasy Overture" depicts the timeless story so vividly, you'll feel as though you're watching a movie. Sink into the solemn chorale evoking Friar Lawrence; the contrast between family strife and the lovers' passion; the wild street scene and fights; and the famous love theme that just keeps getting lush and more poignant till the very end.

Tickets are $30 for adults ($40 preferred seating); $25 for seniors; free for youth under 23 ($15 preferred seating). Tickets purchased through Carson Valley Arts Council help support local arts and may be purchased online at www.cvartscouncil.com, by phone at 775-782-8207, at the Copeland Cultural Arts Center, 1572 US Hwy 395, Minden, NV.

DANA CHILDS EXHIBIT

AT COPELAND GALLERY

Carson Valley Arts Council (CVAC) presents local artist Dana Childs also known as d'Lauren. Dana will be showing her watercolor as well as graphite and acrylic medium work at the Copeland Gallery in Minden. The show runs May 5, 2019 through July 2, 2019. The exhibit can be viewed Monday through Saturday 10am to 5pm. Dana's paintings will be available for purchase throughout the exhibit.

Childs has been painting watercolors professionally for over two decades and has taught watercolor as well as graphite and acrylic mediums for twenty plus years, Childs brings an in-depth understanding of how to connect with her students and pass on skills that empower her students to create to their hearts desire, with amazing results. "My job, if I do it well, is to work myself out of a job," she says.

Childs also teaches an array of painting classes at the Douglas County Community Center that focus on technique and expressiveness. All levels of are welcome in her classes. Please explore Dana's website at <http://www.dlauren.net>. She can also be reached by e-mail at tfa.create@gmail.com or by phone at 530-306-2379.
