

February 2026 ARTS News!

Looking for a Valentine's Day special evening. Our next concert is award winning Western artist Kristyn Harris on Feb. 13. Become a member for discounted tickets or season tickets and support the ARTS in our community. More details online!

The architect has been hired to start the planning process for the Carson Valley Cinema project to convert it into a Cultural & Performing Arts Center. Details below.

Thank you to all our 2025-26 donors and supporters. You make the arts thrive! Your donations make it possible for CVAC to bring quality concerts to our valley, the Missoula Children's Theatre and ARTS teachers mini-grants to local schools. It is not too late to donate to our youth ARTS education projects.

Check out our website for the "Explore the ARTS" menu at the top which includes pages for local artists and musicians, plus local ARTS organizations and businesses. Contact our office if you are interested in being included on one of the pages. The same page has the new Visual Artist Registry.

Thank you to all our wonderful Volunteers! Volunteers Rock!! Call the CVAC office or check out our website if you want to volunteer or become a member of CVAC.

EDDIE FORD AND VICKI KINGMAN FEATURED ARTISTS AT THE COPELAND GALLERY

Carson Valley Arts Council (CVAC) presents local artists Eddie Ford and Vicki Kingman at the Copeland Gallery in Minden from February 3 through March 27, 2026. The theme of their show is "Double the fun, we're turning 81."

Eddie Ford

Edwina Ford is an artist who lives in Gardnerville, Nevada. She has been painting for over 20 years. She has shown her work in numerous exhibitions in the Carson Valley, winning awards for her oils and watercolors along with selling numerous paintings. Inspiration for her paintings comes from the natural beauty found in the local area, and techniques from artists such as: Richard Schmid (oil) and Anita Engle (watercolors).

Vicki Kingman

Before moving to Gardnerville, Vickie lived at South Lake Tahoe for 20 years. She was a vocalist with several local and Sacramento bands. She sang on the M.S. Dixie and at the Top of the Wheel at Harveys. Her art interests didn't stop there. She always loved to paint and continued to develop her skills. Now she works predominately in watercolor, but will jump track and do a painting in oil also. "Our Valley offers an abundance of beauty" she says. Vickie has been giving classes lately. She says "It is such a joy to see the enthusiasm of others when they experience the magic of painting."

Eddie and Vicki's exhibit can be viewed Monday through Saturday 10 am to 5 pm. Eddie and Vicki's work will be available for purchase.

CVAC will host an artist's reception for Eddie and Vicki on Saturday, February 7 from 1 until 3 p.m. The reception is free and open to the public. Come and meet Eddie and Vicki.

Feel free to contact us for additional information or questions by calling the Carson Valley Arts Council office at 782-8207. Visit our website at www.cvacouncil.com to learn more about CVAC and upcoming events. The Copeland Gallery is located at 1572 US Hwy 395, Minden (corner of Hwy 395 and County Road).

The CVAA is pleased to offer two Needle Felting classes with Kim VanZyll on February 7 and one on March 28. Please register for the class by clicking on this link: <https://carsonvalleyartists.com/felting-class/> If you can't register online, please send us an email and we will get you on the list.

Award Winning Western Artist Comes to Minden

The CVAC's 2025-2026 Concert Series resumes with music from Kristyn Harris on Friday, February 13, 2026 at 7:00 pm at the CVIC Hall in Minden.

Kristyn Harris, a Texas-bred musical powerhouse out of Burleson, TX, has been named the International Western Music Association Entertainer of the Year 6 times, and is the youngest person to have received this honor. She is especially recognized for her powerful voice, swing rhythm guitar chops, songwriting, yodeling, and energetic stage presence.

Other accolades include International Western Music Association Female Performer of the Year 7 times, as well as being honored by the National Cowboy Hall of Fame in Oklahoma City for "Outstanding Western Album". In addition, she has recently received recognition for her music from the CMA of Texas and the International Red Carpet Awards in the Netherlands.

Although western swing, cowboy songs and a little bit of classic country are her primary staples, you might even hear strains of big band or folk artists in her music, and she also enjoys sharing her faith through gospel songs.

Membership is $22, general tickets are $25; $28 at the door; and kids under 18 are free with a paid adult ticket. Tickets are available for purchase online at [www.cvarts council.com](http://www.cvarts council.com), by phone at 775-782-8207, or at the Copeland Cultural Arts Center, 1572 US Hwy 395, Minden.

The Douglas County Community Services Foundation donated $62,500 to help fund a Cultural and Performing Arts Community Center's master planning phase, according to a Friday, Jan. 30, Douglas County news release. The Carson Valley Arts Council also made a matching contribution of $62,500 to fund the architect and planning process.

The Douglas County Board of Commissioners accepted the donations and approved a $125,000 contract with Tate Snyder Kimsey Architects, Ltd. to lead the master planning process for the center. The Carson Valley Arts Council, has been working toward the development of a performing arts center for more than 20 years.

“This investment reflects our foundation’s commitment to enhancing quality of life, economic vitality, and community connection through arts and culture,” said Renea Louie, chairwoman of the Douglas County Community Services Foundation. “This project has been a shared vision for years, and the foundation board has committed to its success from aspiration to reality.”

A review team evaluated submissions and interviews, then chose Tate Snyder Kimsey Architects, Ltd. as the preferred firm to enter into contract negotiations.

The center represents a long-standing priority for Douglas County, consistently affirmed through multiple planning efforts, including the 2013 Valley Vision, 2018 Minden and Gardnerville Plan for Prosperity, 2020 Douglas County Master Plan, and the 2024 Strategic Plan.

The master planning process will establish a framework to guide development, investment, and implementation, ensuring the project reflects community values, needs, and aspirations, the release said. Expenditures will be tracked under a dedicated project number assigned by the Finance Department to ensure transparency and accountability.

Carson Valley Arts Council President, Brian Fitzgerald, said "We hope our community will support our efforts to bring this new Cultural & Performing Arts Community Center to life. Individual, business and organization donations will be critical to make the Center a reality. Carson Valley Arts Council also has added an account for this new project separate from its regular arts programming. Click on the image below to support the new Cultural * Performing Arts Center."
