Tish Hinojosa

Mark your calendar for Sunday, Nov. 18th. at 3:30 PM

The second concert in CVAC's 2018-2019 Concert Series will feature music from Tish Hinojosa in a Sunday afternoon concert at 3:30 PM. This is a departure from our traditional Friday, evening concerts. The concert will be held at St Gall Catholic Church. Remember youth under 18 can attend free so it can be a wonderful family experience.

Leticia ("Tish") Hinojosa, San Antonio, Texas, is a folksinger recording in both Spanish and English. Hinojosa has dedicated her career to playing music from the southwest, starting out in Tejano before moving on to singer/songwriter folk, border music and country.

Hinojosa released her 17th album "West," in June 2018. It is an album that includes a duet with another Texan, Michael Martin Murphey. "West" is yet another brilliant body of work displaying Hinojosa's enchanting blend of folk, country, and pop while always paying homage to her Latino heritage.

Her undeniable appeal has been embraced worldwide on stages where she has charmed audiences from The White House to Hamburg, Germany, where she made her home for 9 years before returning to Austin, Texas in 2013.

Hinojosa has appeared as a featured guest on such programs as Austin City Limits, A Prairie Home Companion, and various NPR programs. She has collaborated with artists Joan Baez, Booker T. Jones, Flaco Jimenez, Pete Seeger, and Dwight Yoakam to name a few.

The 3:30 pm concert at St. Gall Catholic Church, featuring Tish Hinojosa will be an enchanting afternoon of music you don't want to miss! Doors open at 2:30 pm. ALANNA MCDANIEL'S

WHAT IS YOUR HAT

EXHIBIT at CVAC

Carson Valley Arts Council (CVAC) presents local artist Alanna McDaniel's What Is Your Hat? Alanna will be displaying her art at the Copeland Gallery in Minden from November 1, 2018 through January 2, 2019. The exhibit can be viewed Monday through Saturday 10am to 5pm. Some of Alanna's paintings and her knit hats are available for purchase.

CVAC will be hosting an artist's reception on Friday, November 2, 5 pm to 7 pm. Refreshments will be served and it is free to the public. Come and meet Alanna and preview her amazing work.

Alanna primarily paints with acrylic paint and uses various glazes, stains, and gels along with the acrylic paint. Some of her work is also done in oils. Alanna also knits hats. Knitting hats has been a hobby for Alanna for many years. "I knit hats with my mother, the greatest teacher of all." She is incorporating very artful, very colorful, very unusual knitted hats within the theme of this art show of painted hats. "In a time of celebrating diversity it seems fitting to celebrate our different hats, the different hats we choose to wear," says Alanna.

"It is my hope that viewers of my portraits find themselves in each face, an extended self, an altered self, reconnecting to their own youthful self. It is also my hope that viewers may connect with the 'other', the other self, an otherwise duality within. It is a tragic thing to lose that sense of youth as our lives go by, and our lives go by so quickly. Youth, no matter what age, is about universal joys of celebration, and decoration, and eating well. I have shared these joys with many children during the years of teaching, and raising my own children. Each moment of life is so profoundly precious, truly miraculous. I find comfort in encapsulating these brief, miraculous moments of life within each painting, it is emotionally healing, and it is a way of reconfirming that the beauty of our humanity will prevail, that it must prevail," said Alanna.

Alanna's studio is Art For Life Studios and she gives both public and private art lessons. She says she loves to post the latest art projects of her students, along with her own art, on her Facebook site Art For Life Art Studios. She also posts her latest hand knitted hats on her Facebook site Tahoe Toppers. Come visit her there. Please feel free to write Alanna at ArtForLifeArtStudios@gmail.com.
